

DISTRIBUTED BY LOLLESGARD SPECIALTY CO., TUCSON, ARIZONA

The Navajos are the most numerous tribe in Arizona, about 25,000 of them living in the Painted Desert country east of the Grand Canyon, in Monument Valley, and north-eastern New Mexico. Motorists here see the women weaving rugs before their hogans, the men making beautiful jewelry of silver and turquoise, and horsemen here and there herding flocks of sheep from which wool for the rugs is obtained.
